

Dean T Mullin, FEC, FGC (Hon.), Ph.D., MBA, P.Eng.

Calgary, Alberta

---

Objective

To contribute to the proactive regulation of the practices of engineering and geoscience in Alberta, as an Executive member of APEGA Council.

Professional Summary

- Professional engineer with breadth of experience in the consulting sector.
- Executive leadership and management experience in firms from under 100, to over 30,000 employees.
- Director experience including APEGA Council, Corporate and not-for-profit boards.

Education

Master of Business Administration: University of New Brunswick (2008)
Specialty: Marketing of professional services, mergers and acquisitions

Doctor of Philosophy: University of Alberta (2005)
Specialty: Structural Engineering (Earthquake Engineering)

Master of Science: University of Alberta (1994)
Specialty: Structural Engineering (Structural Steel Stability)

Bachelor of Science in Engineering: University of New Brunswick (1991)
Specialty: Structural Engineering

Employment History

2003 – Present: Stantec Consulting Ltd. (Recent roles listed for brevity)

Vice President, Integration Leader (2019 – Present). Responsible for integration of acquired companies and support of the acquisition program. Duties include:

- Target identification, due diligence and valuation of target companies.
- Strategic planning, business planning and performance management for acquired businesses.
- Planning and execution of integrations including staffing plans, system transitions, policy implementation, risk management, business continuity of corporate services (IT, Finance, HR, Risk, HSSE, Payroll etc.)
- Ensuring continuity and adequacy of controls including quality, professional practice, financial, management, supervisory, risk, safety.
- Oversight of acquired company executives and managers.

Vice President, Discipline Leader, Oil & Gas (2013-2019). Responsible for project delivery, project management, engineering practice, quality, and project services within North America. Lead a diverse team of professionals responsible for operating standards, tools and practices. Oversight of projects with extraordinary risk as leader of the Oil & Gas Business Operating Unit Risk Committee.

Progressive responsibilities including Engineer, Manager, Business Unit Leader and Practice Leader (2003-2013)

1995 – 2003: BP-TEC Engineering Group Ltd., Edmonton, AB

BP-TEC provides structural design services for steel, concrete, timber and masonry structures, including buildings, bridges, municipal infrastructure, industrial structures and marine facilities. As partner (2000 onward) in a small firm, every aspect of the business demands attention, including managing finances, negotiating salaries, managing staff, developing and maintaining client relationships.

1994 – 1995: Edmonton Regional Airports Authority, Edmonton, AB

Environmental Officer – Developed and implemented site specific standard operating procedures for spill cleanup, de-icing, fuelling, noise abatement and bird control.

1993: Terracon Geotechnique, Overburden Field Engineer, Fort McMurray, AB

Field engineer and contract administrator for earthmoving and road construction at the Syncrude mine. Monitored contractor progress, attested and processed claims.

Service to the Profession and Awards

Fellow of Engineers Canada
APEGA Summit Award for Early Accomplishment (2002)
Decades of volunteer service for APEGA and APEGNB

Boards and Advisory Roles

APEGA Council (2022 to Present)

Council member and chair of Audit and Risk Committee (2024 to Present)

ZETCON – Stantec Board of Directors (2023 to Present)

Director of wholly owned subsidiary of Stantec Consulting GmbH. ZETCON is a team of over 700, providing engineering and construction administration services to public clients in Germany.

Vice Chair, Board of Directors – Closer to Home (CTH) Community Services, Calgary

CTH Community Services comprises a not-for-profit service organization (a registered charity) and a for-profit real estate corporation. Over 60 staff serve over 1600 vulnerable children and families in Calgary.

Personal Interests

Volunteering, cycling, hiking, skiing.